

Profile of Registered IO Psychologist - Mr. LAW Chun Wai, Matthias (羅俊瑋)

Mr. Law is a dedicated Industrial-Organizational Psychologist with a wealth of experience and a strong commitment to the field. He is a member of the Hong Kong Psychological Society (HKPS) and the Australian Counselling Association (ACA) and currently serves as the General Secretary for the Division of Industrial-Organizational Psychology of HKPS.

Mr. Law is currently the Executive Director of New Horizons Development Centre, he brings over eighteen years of expertise in providing counselling, training, and consultation services. Throughout his career, he has collaborated with a diverse range of clients, including government departments, NGOs, social enterprises, corporations, and various educational institutions, such as kindergartens, primary, secondary, and special schools. His extensive experience allows him to understand the unique needs of different clients and tailor his services accordingly. In addition to his professional role, Mr. Law teaches as an adjunct lecturer at tertiary institutions, where he thoroughly enjoys sharing his knowledge and experience with students. He was the recipient of a Teaching Excellence Award in 2020 from the Li Ka Shing School of Professional and Continuing Education at Hong Kong Metropolitan University (formerly “The Open University of Hong Kong”).

With his passions and expertise, Mr. Law focuses on facilitating employee engagement, promoting interdisciplinary teamwork, fostering organizational commitment and change management. He specializes in work-family issues and Life/Career planning, as well as promoting diversity and inclusion in the workplace. He is experienced in providing counselling to employees with diverse needs, adeptly supporting individuals in navigating challenges, optimizing work and developing competence.

Professional Qualification

Registered Industrial-Organizational Psychologist

HKPS

Master of Science in Work and Organisational Psychology

Lingnan University

Master in Counselling

Monash University

Working Experience

Mr. Law has been providing counselling, training, and consultation services across various sectors since 2006. With his experience and interest, he emphasizes the importance of humanistic development and the potential for personal growth. He is currently working with kindergartens, primary schools, secondary schools and special schools to offer school-based support and training, benefiting a wide range of participants.

Mr. Law is also active in providing counselling and training for higher education institutions, with significant experience working with students with special educational needs. He has conducted various workshops and courses in different organizations for more than 18 years.

Some of the organizations Mr. Law had worked with:

- The University of Hong Kong School of Professional and Continuing Education
- The Chinese University of Hong Kong School of Continuing and Professional Studies
- The Hong Kong Polytechnic University College of Professional and Continuing Education
- Hong Kong Metropolitan University Li Ka Shing School of Professional and Continuing Education
- Lingnan University
- Vocational Training Council
- The Lands Department (The Government of the HKSAR)
- The Labour Department (The Government of the HKSAR)
- General Grade Office (The Government of the HKSAR)
- St. James' Settlement S.M.I.L.E.
- Baptist Oi Kwan Social Service
- Fu Hong Society
- Hong Chi Association
- YMCA of Hong Kong
- Education Convergence